

ATTENTION: the first day of the conference, June 8, has been cancelled.

The conference will still take place as planned on Friday, June 9 (see programme below)

Friday June 9, 2017
9:30 – 10:45	Oliver Marchart (Vienna): Opening Mathijs van de Sande (Leuven): Prefiguration and Performative Enactment: An Anarchist Approach to Contemporary Protest Movements
11:00 – 12:15	Regina Kreide (Gießen): The Loss of (Democratic) Visions and the Unequal Future break
14:00 – 15:15	Nassima Sahraoui (Frankfurt/M.): Pré-figurés: Devant la force. Violence, Resistance, and the Potentiality of a Dynamic Selfhood. A Paradox in Three and a Half Acts
15:15 – 16:30	Mathias Thaler (Edinburgh): Peace as a Minor, Grounded Utopia. On Prefigurative and Testimonial Pacifism
17:00 – 18:15	Isabella Guanzini (Graz): Prophecy vs Utopia? Theological-political Considerations on Democratic Futurity
18:15 – 19:30	Florian Grosser (Berkeley): Uncommon Communities or the Bond of 'Worldbuilding': Reimagining Coexistence in an Age of Forced Migration

Organizers: Oliver Marchart (University of Vienna) & Linda Zerilli (University of Chicago)

Hosts: Political Theory Division, Department of Political Science (University of Vienna) & International Faculty Grants Programme University of Chicago / Universität Wien

Registration and contact: politische.theorie@univie.ac.at