

INVITATION

EU-Citizens' Dialogue with Dimitris Avramopoulos, EU Commissioner for Migration, Home Affairs and Citizenship on the

"Future of the EU: Challenges for a humanitarian Europe?
Migration, solidarity and security in the EU."

When: Thursday, 17 May 2018, 9.30 – 10.45 am

Where: Neues Institutsgebäude, Universitätsstr. 7, 1010 Vienna, ground floor,
Hörsaal III (attention: room has changed!)

What results have been achieved with the European Agenda on Migration presented by the European Commission in 2015? Has the EU made progress in setting up a common asylum system based on international obligations and solidarity among Member States and what are the remaining obstacles? What has improved with regard to border management and what still needs to be done? Finally, what is the EU doing to tackle the root causes of migration?

EU-Commissioner Dimitris Avramopoulos is looking forward to discussing with you current challenges and actions to be taken by the EU in the area of asylum and migration!

Welcome: Jean-Robert Tyran, Vice-Rector for Research and International Affairs,
University of Vienna

Moderation: Josef Melchior, Director of Studies, Department of Political Science,
University of Vienna

Registration required: admin.politikwissenschaft@univie.ac.at

