

What future for Europe? What will Europe look like in 5 or 10 years? How can I have a say and influence the European-level decision-making? Does democracy matter in Europe? What are my rights?

INVITATION

to the „What future for Europe?“ debate

These are some of the questions we will focus on during our debate with the participation of citizens from 10 European countries (Austria, the Czech Republic, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Romania, Serbia and Slovakia). The event is part of the ongoing Europe-wide process to debate the future of Europe. It has a special relevance during the Austrian Presidency of the European Council in 2018. Come and join us if the future of Europe matters to you!

Initial plenary presentations will be made by:

Prof. Pál TAMÁS	Hungarian Academy of Sciences
Ms Simona PRONCKUTÉ	activist, How to collect 1 million signatures project

The plenary is followed by group discussions.

When? 15.00-17.00 hours
on Tuesday, 20 November 2018

Where? Wirtschaftsuniversität Wien
(Welthandelsplatz 1, 1020 Wien)
Building AD, Entrance C

Drinks and sandwiches will be offered.

Participation is free. Please help us by registering until 19 November 2018:

<https://goo.gl/forms/FsssAmW6GgIhn6hf2>

Registered participants will receive a complimentary ticket to the Monet exhibition at Albertina at the end of the programme.

Looking forward meeting you soon,

Miklós Barabás
Director, European House
Budapest

Ruth Simsa
a.o. Univ.Prof.
Institut für Soziologie, WU

